

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.—Ran away from the subscriber, living near Piscataway, Prince George's county, Md. on Monday, the 3d instant, negro JOHN, who calls himself John Clements. He is about 18 years old, and supposed to be about 5 feet 7 inches in height; quite a black negro, and has a down look when sharply spoken to. John's mother, I understand, was sold by Jos. N. Burch, of this county, to a Mr. Davis, who kept the Fountain inn, in Washington, about 12 or 18 months ago, where I think John is likely to be if he has left this neighborhood. I will give $20 reward if taken within 15 miles of my house, and secured, uninjured, in jail, so that I get him again; or if taken any where in the District of Columbia, or over 15 miles from my house, I will give the above reward of $50.

RANDOLPH B. LATIMER,
Administrator of Dr. John F. Latimer, deceased.
